

THE BRITISH INSTITUTE OF GRAPHOLOGIST'S 30TH ANNIVERSARY

by Adam Brand (Chair) MBIG (dip)

On September 8th 2013, at the Soroptimists Club in London, the B.I.G celebrated its 30th Anniversary and elected two new Fellows.

Between talks given by Elaine Quigely on Le Senne and Karolina Tolgyesi on International Copybooks, a Special General Meeting was called to vote on the proposal that two members - Elaine Quigley and John Beck - be elected Fellows.

Both Elaine and John have a deep understanding of graphology, they have both presented papers at international meetings, published important articles, represented the B.I.G. in the media, taught numerous students, and played a vital and integral part in the organisation of the B.I.G as Chairmen. They were elected unanimously and now join the only other Fellow of the B.I.G, Erik Rees.

Afterwards, the members toasted the anniversary of the Institute with champagne, and Erik Rees outlined how the Institute was formed in 1983 as a result of an advertisement placed in the newspapers by Frank Hilliger.

