7. ENTITLEMENT TO VOTE

Entitlement to vote shall be given to all registered individual members of the Institute. Corporate membership does not carry voting rights.

8. GOVERNING BODY OF THE INSTITUTE

The governing body of the Institute shall be known as the Management Committee, and shall consist of seven(7) elected Officers of the Institute, comprising those holding, for the time being, the following Offices – Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Secretary, Treasurer, Education Officer, Research Officer, and Marketing/PR Officer; together with a further two members nominated by the Management Committee itself. All members of the Management Committee must be registered members of the Institute.

9. ELECTION OF OFFICERS

The initial term of office for an elected Officer shall be for a period of three years. An Officer may be re-elected for a further three years, but thereafter a minimum period of one year shall elapse before re-election. The only exception to this rule will be when the Vice-Chairman has completed a full term of office, that officer may immediately stand for Chairman for three years, and can then stand again for a further three years, before stepping down for one year. A President of the Institute may be elected by the Committee to honour a graphologist who has made an outstanding contribution to the British Institute of Graphologists. The term of Office of the President and Vice-Presidents shall be for three years, with re-election for further three year periods if desired. All other offices shall be of an appropriate term as recommended by the Management Committee and passed as a resolution at an Annual General Meeting or other special meeting convened for that purpose. At the discretion of the Management Committee, an Officer may be removed from Office following absence, without prior arrangement, from meetings on three or more occasions. It will be the responsibility of the Education Officer to establish an Examination Board for purposes as set out under the objects and aims of the Institute. An Education Officer shall have power to co-opt members qualified to serve on the Board. There shall be no less than three Officers serving on the Examination Board.

10. NOMINATIONS

Nominations for appointment to office or committees shall be made at least thirty days before an Annual General Meeting or other special meeting. All nominations shall be proposed and seconded in writing and consent of the nominee obtained. Nomination forms shall be made available upon application to the Secretary for this purpose.

11. VOTING AND BALLOTING

Voting shall be by a show of hands, except where a ballot vote is specified by the General Regulations. Where deemed necessary the Chairman may appoint two tellers. Postal ballots shall be allowed on matters constitutional at the discretion of the Management Committee. All officers who are members of the Institute shall be allowed their constitutional right to vote, but a Chairman shall not have a casting vote.

12. MEETINGS

An Annual General Meeting shall be held during October, November or December each year, to –

- a) receive reports from the Management Committee;
- b) receive the accounts that have been examined by an Independent Examiner relating to the previous year;
- c) elect those members of the Management Committee due for election;
- d) elect an Independent Examiner.

Twenty one (21) days notice of an Annual General Meeting shall be given to all registered members, but the non-receipt of such notice shall not invalidate the meeting.

The Management Committee shall decide when ordinary meeting of the Institute shall be held and a Special General Meeting may be called by the Management Committee or upon written request to the Management Committee and signed by ten members.

At least fourteen (14) days notice of all General Meetings or Special Meetings shall be given to all registered members.

Notice of motions for the Annual General Meeting to be received by the Secretary in writing thirty (30) days prior to the AGM.

13. QUORUM

Ten (10) registered members of the Institute present at all Annual, Special or General Meetings shall constitute a quorum.

At all meetings of the Management Committee three (3) elected officers present shall constitute a quorum. For all other meetings the Management Committee shall determine whether or not a quorum is required.

14. THE FINANCIAL YEAR

The financial year shall be from 1st April to 31st March.

15. DUTIES

The duties of all appointed officers of the Institute shall be set out in the General Regulations issued by the Management Committee, such Regulations to be amended or varied only with the express consent of the Management Committee.

16. SPECIFIC POWERS OF THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

The Management Committee shall be the official body representative of the Institute.

The Management Committee shall have the power to establish any kind of committee and may fix the quorum of any committee upon appointment and may vary such or not. The Committee may also decide whether a quorum is required or not, or may alternatively allow committees to fix their own quorum. Minutes of the Annual General Meeting shall be approved by the Management Committee. The Committee shall have the power to make, amend or rescind the General Regulations as it sees fit and may apply such making, amending or rescinding for the duration up until the next Annual General Meeting when such making, amending or rescinding shall be required to be confirmed by the body of the Institute. Alternatively, a Special General meeting may be called as soon as possible to resolve any making, amending or rescinding of such General Regulations.

The Committee may advise on and/or convene meetings concerning any constitutional matter.

The Committee may appoint any of its own members to other committee or individual positions. The Committee shall also have the power to co-opt other members of the Institute to its own or other committees between Annual General Meetings and shall also have authority to obtain the services of any other professional advisors as may be deemed necessary from time to time.

The Committee shall have the power to expel members from membership of the Institute and to suspend membership until a Special General Meeting can be called to resolve any call for expulsion. The Committee shall have power to confer honorary memberships as it sees fit, and shall be entitled to invite eminent persons to become patrons of the Institute.

The Management Committee shall submit any recommendations relating to revision of membership subscription fees for resolution at an Annual General Meeting.

The Management Committee shall be enabled to undertake fundraising operations where necessary and shall control any investment of funds from whatever sources which shall be invested in accordance with Trustee Investment powers as permitted by law. The Committee shall also have monetary powers of general purchase to enable the efficient running of the Institute as well as power of expenditure to cover such costs and payments as may be necessary from time to time.

Powers for the borrowing of money or the acquiring of property shall be allowed only when authorised by vote at an Annual General Meeting.

In the event of the winding up of the Institute the Committee shall have power to settle all liabilities.

17. AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION

The Constitution may be amended by a 2/3rd majority of members eligible to vote at an Annual General Meeting or Special General Meeting or by means of a postal ballot, provided that at least fourteen (twenty one in the case of the AGM) days notice of the proposed amendment has been given to members and that no amendment shall be made to the Constitution which would cause the Institute to cease to function in the obtaining or maintaining of its Objects and Aims, specifically where its charitable aims and activities are concerned.

18. WINDING UP

The Institute may be wound up if a proposal to that effect is passed by a 2/3rd majority of members present at a Special General Meeting.

If, in the event of a winding-up of the Institute, there remains after the settling of all liabilities any property whatsoever, this shall not be paid or distributed among the members of the Institute but shall be given or transferred to such an organisation having objects similar to those of the Institute as the members decide.

The existence of the Institute shall be terminated on completion of the winding-up.
